

Table of contents

Abstract.....	2
Table of contents.....	3
1. Introduction
1.1 Personal Reflection on Recent Exhibition Making.....	5
1.2 Research Scope: Analysing Practices in Italy and Germany.....	8
1.3 Stato dell'arte. Sources and References.....	12
1.4 Methodology: Case Studies and Comparative Analysis of Exhibition Lighting.....	15
2. The Paradox of Representation
2.1 Metaphorical Visibility. The Paradox of Representation.....	19
2.2 The Disconnect Between Bright Spaces and Challenging Content.....	21
2.3 Excursus: Visibility as Representation in Media Studies.....	24
3. The Aesthetics of Visibility
3.1 Three Doors at the Württembergischer Kunstverein: A Case Study...	27
3.2 Physical Visibility. The White Cube and the Prevalence of Light.....	30
3.3 Historical Development of Lighting in Exhibition Contexts.....	36
4. Darkness as a Metaphor and Tool
4.1 Metaphorical Darkness. Meaning and interpretation.....	40
4.2 The Paradox of Limited Visibility, Enhancing Freedom and Emotional Engagement.....	42
5. Tangible Darkness
5.1 Liminal, Pierre Huyge at Punta della Dogana: A Case Study.....	48
5.2 Creating Dark Environments in Exhibition Spaces
5.2.1 From Dark to Light.....	50
5.2.2 From Light to Dark.....	52
5.3 Basements, Bunkers, and Darkrooms: Case Studies outside the Art World.....	57

5.4 Ethical Considerations and Accessibility in Dark Spaces.....	64
6. Excursus. In-Between Light and Dark, Situated Exhibitions
6.1 Exploring the Interplay of Light and Darkness.....	67
6.2 Monte di Pietà at Fondazione Prada: A Case Study.....	68
7. Caring Darkness. Beyond Awareness to Connection.....	71
8. Figures.....	75
12th Berlin Biennale.....	77
Garden of Ten Seasons.....	79
Three Doors.....	81
Liminal.....	83
Monte di Pietà.....	85
Foreigners Everywhere, Biennale.....	88
Bibliography.....	90